About Oxera

Oxera was founded on a single principle: to use the power of economics and finance to answer the world's most difficult challenges.

That principle, and our values—integrity, insight, collaboration and passion for our work—have directed us ever since, from where we began to the global reach we have today.

The event will cover

- Overview of what Oxera does
- Oxera's Finance and Valuation practice
- An opportunity to present your CV
- Meet with Oxera team members

In partnership with the University of Siena for curricular and extra-curricular internships.
