

BACHELOR'S DEGREE IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT (ITALIAN "LAUREA TRIENNALE", i.e. FIRST CYCLE DEGREE)

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019/2020

For the extra-UE students the first level course in Economics and Banking is a restricted-access program: this means that applicants, in whatever system they have been educated, must satisfy specific admission requirements.

Only those students meeting the admission criteria will be admitted to the course, in a number within the quota set by the Italian Ministry of Education.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In order to be considered, an Extra-UE student's application should include the following:

- ✓ A CV/Resume
- ✓ A motivational letter
- ✓ An official report of the performance in the selection test (see below)
- ✓ A certificate of English Language skills:

- CEF B1 level or higher

However, in order to progress in the course, enrolled students must report at least a CEF B2 level by January 2020. The level must be certificated by sitting an internal test, if no other evidence has been provided by student within January 2020. A list of the accepted international certifications is available at <http://www.cla.unisi.it/it/node/743>. Note that beyond this date, without the certification, students will be prevented from sitting for examinations.

Selection Test:

To participate to the selection procedure, extra-UE students must have taken one of the following three tests:

- ✓ ACT
- ✓ SAT
- ✓ SEM test

ACT test

Details concerning the ACT (American College Testing) are available at www.act.org.

Extra EU students can find the nearest place where to take the test by looking at the ACT web site at the Test Center Locations page

Note that no minimum score is required to take part to the selection process. When students apply they have to submit a copy of the Official ACT score, the .pdf document downloadable from the candidate's personal page on the ACT website. The report must include the full name of the student and the scores for the sections: Composite, Math, Science, English and Reading.

The writing section of the test will not be considered.

SAT test

Details concerning the SAT (Scholastic Assessment Test) are available at <https://collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/sat>.

Extra EU students can find the nearest place where to take the test by looking at the SAT registration web page.

Note that no minimum score is required to take part in the selection process. When students apply they have to submit the Official SAT Score Report, the .pdf document downloadable from the candidate's personal page on the College Board website. The report must include the full name of the student and the scores for the sections: Total score, Evidence-Based Reading and Writing Section and Math Section.

The SAT Essay will not be considered.

School of Economics and Management (SEM) test

This test is aimed to assess the verbal, logical, and numerical capabilities that applicants have acquired during high school. It will take place exclusively at the University of Siena on the 17th of September 2019.

Application Timeline:

All students must submit their application through the University of Siena dedicated platform.

<https://apply.unisi.it/>

Responses:

Early selection → Regarding only those students who submitted an Official ACT score or an Official SAT Score Report by the application closing date

By 09/06/2019 on the basis of the test score, CV and motivational letter, a list of accepted students will be provided. Accepted students will receive a letter of acceptance from the University.

Note that accepted students must arrive in Siena by 12/9/2019. Students who fail to arrive by this date will be considered as they had not accepted to enrol.

Late selection → Regarding those students who have not submitted an Official ACT score, nor an Official SAT Score Report by the application closing date

Students are required to sit the SEM test in Siena on 17/09/2019.

However, students who will have provided an Official ACT score or an Official SAT Score Report by the day of the SEM test may be exempted from taking the test.
